Mothers urge their daughters to perform in the world of competitive dance. Dance Moms, ou Mamans, gérantes d'estrade au Québec, est une émission de télé-réalité diffusée depuis le 13 juillet 2011 sur Lifetime et en simultané sur Lifetime Canada. The Dance Moms allow their daughters to wear outfits in a competition that are revealing and the scandal threatens to bring down the house. Abby's attempt to turn up the competition heat blows the audience away with what some may call an inappropriate dance number.
