On the 15th of September, 1868, Troop I, Captain Graham, was attacked by about 100 Indians. It fought until dark, losing ten horses killed and. captured, and killing seven Indians.As you will note, nobody else has written a history of the 10th Missouri Cavalry Regiment. My history may be poorly represented by traditional values, but it does give a primary source for researchers which I did not have.This item: The Fighting 10th: The History of the 10th Missouri Cavalry US Set up a giveaway There's a problem loading this menu right now.
